OUR CAPTAIN JOHAN TERBLANCHE :

I am not built for winter golf. For this Sunday's game I had so many layers of clothing to have been just able to swing. Whilst waiting at the start two of our players, Patches Muller en ex-captain Gert Venter, pitched up with shorts! According to them it will get warmer during the day. I think both of them hoped for some Glenbrynth and milk at the start.

Match secretary, Caren Bester, again send hubby Riaan with all the cards and they made their golf cart the central booking office. JVC Benny Lindeque took up his starting post and sold some Nomads masks to the players for his FOG fund. That's the way to do it. Thanks Benny. The field was only 34 players, including two guests. It was also the first time that new inductees Johan Botha and Marius Swart had the opportunity to play as full Nomads.

Welcome to the both of you and I hope we can return to normal very soon so that you can share in everything that is Nomads, including being properly inducted.

I had the privilege to play with the winner of the day, Charles van den Blink, Peter Rodgers (Judge) and Emiel Jonker, the editor of this magazine. This also turned out to be the winning four ball. If you had a close look at our scorecard you will see that we even managed to completely blow hole no 16. Thanks gentleman, it was most enjoyable. Thank you Peter for the small contribution from your pension fund to my children's fund. To Joe de Beer, our altar bunny, better luck next time.

After the game all the scorecards were photographed and sent to Caren for the finalisation of the game and by seven the results were available on the Whats App groups. Well done, I can see that you are taking your new role as match secretary serious and getting the hang of the Samson system.

At this stage I don't know the way forward for our games, but under the new level 2 regulations we are still not allowed to have more than 50 people in a room, so I can't see that prizegivings will be implemented soon. We are led by the rules that apply to golf clubs and this will only change once we have received new guidelines from the National Executive. Brent Holmes have started an initiative to attract sponsors to our monthly games in the form of hole sponsorships. Should you want to sponsor or know of businesses that can be approached, please contact Brent. It is really an attractive proposition that will appeal to sponsors.

Our next game is at Tempe Golf club and is booked for the 13th of September, and I am looking forward to seeing all of you at the game. In the meantime, be safe.
