Our Captain Johan Terblanche:

Done and dusted. Our April game and AGM. Thank you for all committee members for your input and making a success of the day. It was also my privilege to induct Andre Rheeder as an Honorary Member. You will be able to read the full induction speech in this newsletter. I also had the privilege of handing Ike Heyns his 200-game badge. Nobody ever thought that Ike will reach this milestone as he encountered some speedhobles along the way. Well done, Ike, and many more games for you and thank you for introducing me to Nomads.

We had five prospectives in the field, and I played with one of them Darren Horak. Together with him, Johnny Moore and his son Andre, we had a memorable day. Three of these prospective was inducted and they are Chappie Maree, Andy Mafata and Patrick van Schalkwyk. Welcome to Nomads and I am sure that you will contribute positively towards our club.

One fourball cleaned the prize table and it was that of Rudi Botha, Vaughn Healy, Louis Lange and Charles van den Blink. Between them they managed to amass 140 points with both Rudi and Vaughn just missing out on their 40 pointers. I also want to thank Rudi for his sponsorship of the day through Herholdt's Electrical.

We have also opening the entries for the Gary Player competition and await your entries. Entries will close at the end of this week and your names can be sent to Caren Bester directly. Louis Lange will be sponsoring all the entry fees and all the games will be played during our monthly games. Now you have no reason not to enter.

See you at our next game and be safe

ANDRE RHEEDER AS HONORARY MEMBER

Andre Rheeder is one of the few remaining founder members of Free State Nomads. Over the years, he was very active and involved with Nomads and earned the nickname “Hitler”. Should any Nomad, whether he be a captain, committee member or ordinary Nomad lose focus on what Nomads are all about, he will very quickly get them back on track. He was always a mentor for the captains that followed him and was always prepared to assist where needed.

He became captain in 2001 for the first time. When the Free State was in trouble in 2008 when the elected captain at the time, Mark Courtney, was transferred to Nigeria, Andre put his hand up on short notice to stand in as captain for the second time, which earned him a lot of respect from Nomads.

The best reward any captain can wish for is to win the Bert Hunt trophy in his year of Captaincy. After seeing him celebrate in 2008 after FS Nomads won the trophy, we only really realized what Free State Nomads meant to Andre.

Andre was also more than willing to assist with sponsorships when needed, prepared to sponsor the Free State Nomads scorecards and to participate in all fund raiser events for those less fortunate than us. Through Andre’s initiative, a Nomads trophy cabinet was built and installed at Schoeman Park Golf Club.

Through his company, Andre sponsored the kitchen and all the food for all the prize givings at the 2008 Nationals.

As our appreciation for your dedication, guidance and all you have done for Free State Nomads, we would like to honor you with honorary membership of the Free State Nomads.
