Our Captain Benny Lindeque:

A chilly June morning greeted us for our Monthly game held at Bloemfontein Golf Club. We had a good size field filled with quite a few guests. My four ball had 2 guest, Tjokkie Roux and Coenie Beukes and Emiel taking the last spot. Overall we had a great day on the course.

Prize giving was breeze, a special thanks to the Ladies, Charlie, Ralph and Fines Master Emiel for one of the best prize giving's in a while. Johann Erasmus from PCI Developments sponsored the Day, thanks Johann

I had the privilege of inducting 4 new Nomads members. Ruben Becker, Pieter Maartens, Kalfie van den Hever and my son Brandon Lindeque. Welcome to Nomads Guys. Pieter Maartens decided being inducted was not enough and shot a 40 pointer to be our “Champ of The Day”. Wilfred ended up winning the Pink Hat for most Golf. (I think it is the first time Choggies is the worst player) Congratulations to all the prize winners.

Our Club is in a healthy place with 3 prospective members and a few of the guests indicating that they are interested in joining. Keep up the good work guys. As mentioned we are getting the Veldskoen back on track. Keep an eye out for the entries for the weekend of 6-8 October. Hope to see you all at the next game which will be on 2 July 2023 at Schoemanpark Golf Club.

Nomad Greetings

Benny Lindeque

Golforama Pro-Am :

Golforama is a patent purchased by CNA in 1963 for the exclusive use of Nomads. It is the name of the scoring system cleverly devised by Nomads to facilitate "real-time" scoring at professional and other events in Southern Africa sanctioned by the South African Golf Association, Sunshine Tour and European Tour Events.

The system relies on volunteers from Nomads giving up their time to assist at tournaments by operating electronic equipment supplied by the Sunshine Tour organisers to record player's scores at each of the 18 holes. These electronically recorded scores are transmitted to a central control point operated by Nomads and in turn disseminated to the main scoreboard as well as various scoreboards around the course for "live" spectator updates. In addition to the manpower in the control room, scoreboard operators and greenside recorders the club also provides roving reporters who follow the leading 10 groups recording statistics and scores for television viewers assisting with the promotion of golf as a spectator sport. Although as Nomads we volunteer our time to ensure the success of Golforama, Nomads South Africa is compensated for the service and the proceeds of the money is expended on projects for the furtherance of golf.

Gert Venter giving some putting tips to Louis. Outcome unknown.

After a discussion between our National Chairman, Graham Bishop and Thomas Abt, the Tour Commissioner of the Sunshine Tour, it was decided that the Sunshine Tour will start a day saying thank you to Nomads for the work that we do at all the tournament all over the country. When the Sunshine Tour send out a request to the pro's that they can make themselves available for a pro-am tournament these spots were immediately filled by them. The invitation from The Tour included the full cost of the day.

The northern leg was held at Kyalami Country Club, and we got five spots for those Freestaters that helped at the SA Open in December 2022. We were represented by Louis Lange, Joe de Beer, Gert Venter, Riaan Bester and Johan Terblanche and we had had a great experience.

The professionals were super appreciative of the work that Nomads do during the year, and we had the pleasure of seeing these guys in action and talking us through their thought process when hitting certain shots. They think a lot!

It is easy to get an invitation to the next pro-am, just put your name forward for Golorama duties during this year. This was not a once-off and will be held every year according to the Tour. It will require some of your time, especially with no allocated tournaments in our region this year and with the most being held in the Gauteng region but can be worth your while to get that invitation.

Johan Terblanche
Past Captain 2020-2022
