FROM OUR CAPTAIN'S PEN

Weekend of Golf Success

Our Sunday game marked the fitting conclusion to an excellent weekend of golf, which got underway on Friday with the match play competition against QACCS. The foursomes and pairs were keenly contested, and we emerged with a well-earned 19 – 13 victory.

On Sunday, we had the pleasure of hosting QACCS at our monthly game. The event attracted a field of 75 players, one of the largest turnouts we have seen for a long while, highlighting the growing support and enthusiasm for our fixtures. After another competitive encounter with QACCS, we were proud to secure victory in the inaugural competition—certainly the start of what promises to be a regular and much-anticipated feature on our calendar.

Thanks to the new sponsorships concluded last year, we were able to offer an impressive prize table, which we believe will continue to attract even greater participation at our monthly games. A sincere thank you goes to everyone involved in making the weekend such a success.

Our next game will take place on 14 February in Clarens, where we will also be hosting our National Chairman, John Kayula, along with Northerns, for our annual Bell Cup Challenge. We look forward to another memorable event.
