FROM OUR CAPTAIN'S PEN

Captain's Game Report – Bloemfontein Golf Club

The month of June is traditionally the start of the Free State's Winter season. That's why our monthly games don't start until 10h00. That gives us enough time to keep the ice in our Johnnie Walker Blonde drinks and off the Golf Course. Once again, we had a healthy field of almost 60 players which included 4 guests and 3 prospectives at Bloemfontein Golf club.

My teammates for the day were Ralph, Laurie and a new guest, Juan Viljoen. Thank you for a nice day of golf and camaraderie. We had to work hard not to get the title of "Altar Bunnies"... The rest of the players had mixed results with an average score of 30. Congratulations to ML Vosloo who was crowned Champion of the day with 38 points off a 3 handicap. It was also a privilege for me as Captain to re-induct ML Vosloo as Nomad after he was absent for a few months.

There were also quite a few awards on the day that were presented. Congratulations to the following recipients:

Gino de Crescenzo : 5 Year Tie

Johan Terblanche : 10 Year Tie

Congratulations to Vernon York with his first hole-in-one on the 16th and Tony Hallgreen who played his 280th game for Nomads.

The month of June is also a big month for Free State Nomads, because our Furtherance of Golf Day is always held on 16 June. Best of luck to our Junior Vice Captain, Cronje Ferreira on your day. I believe and trust that it will be a success.

We wish our match secretary and away tours officer, Caren Bester, a speedy recovery, being in hospital for the past month, hoping to heel her leg for good. We have much appreciation for trying to keep the club running from your hospital bed. We miss you. A big thanks to her daughter, Chante, standing in for her at our monthly games.

Our next game is on July 12, 2026 at Schoeman Park Golf Club. I look forward to seeing everyone there.
